ARMOURY GLOBE

Our impressively large Armoury Globe Ceiling Light was inspired by the hanging globes in the hallways of the New York Public Library. It is created from forty-eight brass-framed glass facets which have skilfully and individually crafted before seamlessly combining into a unified self supporting structure.

It is supplied with a matching octagonal ceiling rose and a one metre length of chain. You can specify shorter lengths if preferred or extra chain for longer drops.

Shown here in Antique Brass but also available in any of our standard finishes.
